Your Neighbor, Chelsie Henson

Everyone's favorite neighbor, Mr. Rogers, once said, "Look for the helpers. You will always find people who are helping." Chelsie Henson is one of those kinds of neighbors. Born and raised in Juliaetta, she is at home in this valley. "What I love about Kendrick and Juliaetta is that people are willing to help each other out."

Helping others is one of those qualities Chelsie has in spades. During the beginning of the COVID-19 quarantine, Chelsie Henson spearheaded a group to face the growing needs of those affected by the lockdown—from those who lost their jobs to those who were unable to leave their homes. Community Helpers Facebook group was started with the simple idea of, "How can we help others?"

Chelsie has long served our community in a variety of different ways, from serving on the Distinguished Young Women's Committee, to being the self proclaimed Office Goddess for Colter's Creek Winery. Her passion for gardening has developed into a Community Garden Project, which she hopes will one day be able to produce enough food to donate to the local food bank. "We all have our differences, but it doesn't seem to matter at the end of the day," Chelsie says in regard to the sense of togetherness our communities exhibit.

In her personal life, Chelsie and her long-time boyfriend, Zach Volgewede, were married on Leap Day of this year, which dates back to an old Irish tradition in which women propose to men on Leap Days. Chelsie and Zach, who works for the Kendrick Post Office and currently serves as a Kendrick City Councilmember, have been together for several years, having met at a New Year's Party. Due to COVID-19, the pair have made the decision to postpone a reception until July of 2021.

Finding new friends and meeting neighbors is always a treat, and Chelsie Henson is definitely one worth getting to know. Jacob Towne

Community Garden Coming to Juliaetta

In March 2020, a group of community helpers was established to give back to the community.

One area of interest for this group was providing fresh produce for those in need in Kendrick and Juliaetta. After much discussion, the group decided to create a community garden for the city of Juliaetta. The city offered a great area to develop into a community garden and will be assisting with plumbing.

The garden will be located in Juliaetta, bordering the trail and highway.

Because of construction in the area, it will be spring 2021 before the gardens are up and growing.

The group is planning to build garden boxes that will line the trail, with trees along the bottom roadbed. They are currently looking for grants. After the garden is established, they will take donations to help with maintenance, updates, and water.

The garden will not only provide food, but also an attractive approach on the trail. The group is interested in posting historical signs and getting children involved in the project, therein teaching them what a community can accomplish when it works together.

If anyone would like to be a part of this project please contact Kayla Collins, Lane Burnette, or Chelsie Henson, or email JKcommunitygarden@gmail.com

The group would like to thank all who have contributed to and supported the community helpers these last few months. Check them out on facebook; they would love to have you join their group: <https://www.facebook.com/comm.helpers/>

Cloth Camp: New to Juliaetta

Cloth Camp is a wall tent glamping (glamorous camping) experience now open in Juliaetta. Visitors will have a quiet place to rest their heads after enjoying the beauty, activities and adventures of our area. Guests are encouraged to escape, relax, unwind, and unplug in our rustic 14' x 16' wall tent with a king-sized bed. Enjoy a morning cup of percolated coffee on the 8-foot deck overlooking the valley, with breathtaking views. The tent platform feels more like a tree house than a wall tent, as it extends over the hillside, offering one of the best views of Juliaetta and Kendrick.

Owners Brad and Amy Cothren look forward to offering a unique lodging experience here in our community.

Please visit airbnb.com for additional information, availability, and to book a stay.

Find and follow us on Instagram and Facebook!

Open House (Tent) Event

Date: September 26th (same day as Polly Taylor-Dennler's PSG Sale)

Location: 2091 South Grade Road, Juliaetta

Time: TBD

Giveaway: We are drawing for a FREE one-night stay for those who attend the open house! So, grab your pumpkins and other goodies from the PSG Sale, and come see us to enter the drawing and tour our tent!

Additional Information: Please follow us on Facebook and Instagram for additional event information as it gets closer.

We will be limiting the number of people who can view the tent at the same time. We are following strict Covid-19 safety guidelines from the CDC and ask our visitors and guests to do the same. Thank you for helping us keep our family, friends, and community members safe.

Pastors' Corner

“Submit yourselves for the Lord’s sake to every human institution, whether to a king as the one in authority, or to governors as sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and the praise of those who do right. For such is the will of God that by doing right you may silence the ignorance of foolish men. Act as free men, and do not use your freedom as a covering for evil, but use it as bond slaves of God.” – I Peter 2:11-12

There is a strong independent spirit in our society today. It is a very natural human trait that most of us fall into very easily. In the contemporary environment, we raise our kids to be self-reliant and independent. By the time they reach adulthood they have become convinced that they are not here on this planet to please anyone but themselves. Many express the opinion that laws are merely for convenience sake, and if it isn’t convenient, they need not be followed too closely. Simple observation confirms this over and over. “Nobody is going to tell me what I can or can’t do!” I have heard that phrase often. Our society is devolving into near anarchy where there is no recognition of any authority other than self. The Bible refers to this as “...every man did what was right in his own eyes.” God brought strict judgment on His people when they drifted into that mindset.

Peter writes the same admonition that Paul expressed in Romans 13. This was an important admonition in the early church, but no more important than it is now. The key word in this passage is “submit”. The key reason is “for the Lord’s sake.” For many that it is just so hard to submit to any authority or even to recognize that anyone has authority over us. Paul’s statement is that God, Himself, is the One Who grants that authority, so that when we do not submit, we are actually rebelling against God. Submission such as this demands humility, and pride is the root cause of sin. We are admonished to humble ourselves. In this case, submission is an act of humility and can be painful to our proud flesh.

Then, Peter admonishes that we must act and function as “free men,” but to refrain from using that freedom as an excuse for wrong doing. Many professing Christians think that because they are not under law but under grace that they are free to live in any manner they desire. But that is not the freedom of which the Bible teaches. In this passage he is telling us that our freedom is manifested by our voluntary submission to God as a bond slave. When we humble ourselves satisfactorily before God, and begin to function in the capacity of a bond slave, that’s when our true freedom kicks in and we can then understand the Glory and peace and blessing of God that accompanies this walk with Christ.

Women’s Suffrage – The Long Fight for the Vote

The Declaration of Independence states: “We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men and women are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.”

It is hard to believe that women had to fight for the right to vote for nearly 100 years before the 19th amendment was passed, granting them the right to vote. For a country that fought for liberty and freedom for all, to deny women and blacks the right to vote seems very contradictory.

Suffrage is another word for the right to vote. So, take a moment to celebrate that right for women on the 100th anniversary August 18, 2020.

Three generations of women marched, lobbied congress, and were jailed in inhumane circumstances. These brave women were jeered and openly condemned in newspapers across the land. Their protests were peaceful. They did not damage property or loot buildings. It was not an easy fight and when it finally passed, there was only one vote in the balance.

The movement started in Seneca, New York, in 1848 when a delegation met to launch the movement. The group consisted of 300 people, mostly women, under the leadership of Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Lucretia Mott. There were some men in attendance including Frederick Douglass, a former slave turned activist. Later, Susan B. Anthony and many others joined the movement. (continued on page 7)

Inside Kendrick City Hall

What is the actual role of a mayor? Why are city council members so important? Who runs the town hall meetings? Sometimes, it can be hard to understand exactly what our city representatives and officials do on a daily basis, but hopefully with a little help from Kendrick's new city clerk, Nadine Towne, we can better understand what our city can do for you.

Patty Appel, the mayor of Kendrick, has one of the most important jobs in the city, and also one of the most misunderstood. "Mayors don't go around telling everyone what to do," says Nadine, "they have to be objective and impartial."

The mayor approves all of the day-to-day operations of municipal departments, offices, and agencies. She presides over town hall meetings, which includes presenting the agenda for the meeting, maintaining proper procedure, and serving as the deciding vote in city council decisions. According to Nadine, "Patty actually doesn't get a regular vote. She only votes if the council members are tied up."

Kendrick currently has four city council members: Paul Rush, Carol Bradford, Zach Voglewede, and Rose Norris. The city council is responsible for administrative matters unless the mayor (or an administrator) is formally authorized to perform those functions. Council passes city ordinances, recognizes public requests and inquiries, and votes on matters of public interest. For example, the city council has now approved the use of Lifetime City Dog Licenses, much to the joy of local city dog owners.

"Many people don't know this, but town hall meetings are open to the public," Nadine continued excitedly. "On the third Tuesday of the month, we meet in the park under the gazebo." Last month's meeting broke a record for the amount of public participation. "People don't realize that their voices can be heard. By coming to town hall meetings, you have a direct line to the city council to have your concerns addressed and given agency."

The day-to-day goings on of city life may seem boring, but with the right mix of people, it can be an exciting and fun process. "This is your city," Nadine reminds us, "and we are here to be of service to you."

Be on the lookout for new city updates and future plans for our wonderful community. The City Hall is open from 9:00am to 3:00pm, and Nadine can be reached at 289-5157.

Cameron Emmanuel News

The corona virus is still playing havoc with the schedule at Cameron Emmanuel. We have cautiously held outdoor services at 9:30 on Sundays since August 9, and it has been such a treat to get together and worship on the church lawn - masks and distancing and all! On Sunday, August 30, we will meet for our annual outdoor service at 10:00 a.m. This is usually held at the park in Juliaetta, but in these strange times we have decided to move it to the church lawn, with a brown-bag bring-it-yourself-and-eat-your-own lunch to follow the service in place of the traditional potluck dinner. The schedule after that will be services at 10:00 a.m. beginning Sept. 6 on the lawn, then a week-to-week decision about meeting inside the church or on the lawn after that. Please check our website: cameronemmanuel.org or call the church at 289-3471 for information.

A very sad note is that our annual turkey dinner and bazaar, which was scheduled to be held Oct. 17, has been canceled. It simply will not be safe to have a community meal with so many people in such a confined space. This was a major and difficult decision, because our budget for missions and projects will take a nasty hit, but if one person contracted Covid from that event, it would undo all the good that might have been accomplished. So - see you in 2021 for that wonderful meal and evening!

Four very long-time members of this church have gone on to their promised eternal rewards in the last few weeks. Gladys (Wegner) Sullivan, Margery (Meyer) Silflow, and Harold Silflow were lifelong members of the church and came from pioneer families that had settled on Potlatch Ridge many decades ago. Albert Lawrence joined the church as an adult and raised his family here. Their presence will always be with us in memories and contributions and strength they shared with Cameron Emmanuel. We were honored by their combined presences for well over two centuries, and they will be dearly missed.

Again, please check the website or call the church for information about the schedule.

Light the Park

Due to COVID-19, the Community Library Project is still uncertain if a Light the Park ceremony will be held this holiday season. Watch for more details in the next newsletter. However, even if there is no event, we still plan on putting up the lights! If you'd like to donate to the light fund or if you'd like to volunteer to decorate, please contact City Hall.

Upcoming Office Closures

City Hall will be closed Monday, September 7, to observe Labor Day, as well as Monday, October 12, in recognition of Columbus Day.

Clean Up Month

October is Clean Up Month at the Juliaetta bulky waste site! On October 3 and 17, the bulky waste site will also accept household waste including small appliances, plastic/rubber materials, and railroad ties. As usual, yard waste, scrap metal, up to two large appliances, four passenger tires (no rims), and demolition waste will be accepted. No hazardous waste, asbestos, or e-waste is ever accepted at the bulky waste sites.

City Council Meetings

Upcoming City Council meetings will be held on Tuesday, September 8 and Tuesday, October 13. These meetings begin at 7:00 pm. Agendas are posted in the window at City Hall the week before each meeting, as well as at cityofjuliaetta.com. The public is always welcome to attend. Remember, if you have an issue you would like to have added to the agenda, you must contact City Hall at least 48 hours in advance.

JK FIRE NEWS

Burning Regulations for September and October in both towns and the Ridges are below.

Kendrick City Residents

No Burning is allowed in the town of Kendrick during the state-wide dates of May 10th through October 20th. We follow the dates that are used by the State of Idaho Department of Lands and any extensions adopted by that department. We encourage Kendrick citizens to use the yard refuse container located on Railroad Street behind the bus garage for yard refuse.

Juliaetta City Residents

Burning is allowed in town with a permit obtained through the Juliaetta City Hall from May 10th through October 20th and dependent upon the fire season.

Seven Ridges

If you live outside of town, please contact the Department of Lands for a permit by contacting the Ponderosa Office located in Deary or online.

Thank you for your cooperation. Rose Norris

Community Calendar 2021

Work is going forward to publish another community calendar. If your family is not represented, sign up today. We need your name, address, and birthday listings as well as a wedding anniversary if you wish. The calendars are $10.00 per year. You are billed when they are mailed to you.

Contact Amber Brocke 208-289-5134 or abrocke@hotmail.com with your information.

We wish to thank Latah Credit Union for selling calendars for us.

VFW: 75 Years

Our local V.F.W. Post was created at the end of World War II and named for two local boys who lost their lives in the bloody war that lasted six years. Eldon “Tup” Baker went from being a popular young man at K.H.S. to flying coastal patrol in the war. He was killed in a crash landing in 1945. Oscar Wayne Lind grew up in Kendrick and was drafted into the war before his graduation in 1942. He lost his life in France as a member of the armored division of the Army.

The Post is pleased to report that it recently received the honor of being named “Idaho All State Post” by the State V.F.W. Local members have presented the colors at parades in Deary, Bovill, and Elk River, as well as Kendrick.

They provide veteran services at the cemetery for deceased military men and women. They have provided four of those services so far this year. The Post is grateful for the memorials sent in memory of Ed Hosley.

The flag pole at the Kendrick City Park will undergo renovation soon. The V.F.W. will install lights so that the flag can be flown daily. There will also be a dedication ceremony at a later date. Latah Credit Union has generously donated to this project.

Women’s Suffrage—The Long Fight for the Vote

Suffragettes fought for the right to vote through two major wars: the American Civil War and World War I. President Woodrow Wilson had opposed women’s voting rights until women stepped forward in WWI to fill the roles vacated by men fighting overseas. They grew crops to feed the nation and stepped into manufacturing jobs and mechanical jobs to help the war effort.

Southern states adamantly opposed the amendment fearing it would lead to voting by blacks. However, the dedicated women did not give up in the face of many discouraging defeats. Some picketed the White House daily, in all kinds of weather, to encourage President Wilson to change his mind. Ironically, the western portion of the United States granted the women the right to vote long before the east followed suit.

Posters depicting this struggle are on display in the Grange windows. They were provided to our community by Latah Historical Society.

THE FRIENDLY NEIGHBOR CLUB

Members met Friday, August 7 at the clubhouse to take a class on Silk Ribbon Embroidery from Penny Weaver-Carson. The project was started on Friday and we will continue to work on it at home, meeting once again to finish the project. The silk ribbon comes in various widths and results in a 3-dimensional image. Examples can be found on Amazon, Etsy, and various craft shops. Check the calendar on KJ7 for future classes.

While there, we made the decision to cancel the Annual Harvest Roast Beef Dinner for 2020. The room gets very crowded and would not allow for social distancing. Most of those that attend are older members of the community. Members felt that it was best not to take the chance on exposing ourselves and the community to the virus. Hopefully, life will be better in 2021 and the dinner can be resumed at that time. Kathy Cassin

Senior Center News

Work on the new sinks in the kitchen has been completed. We are grateful for the grant received from Schweitzer Engineering to perform this needed work.

A new coat of paint is being applied for a much-needed upgrade to the exterior of the building. This was made possible with a grant from Latah Community Foundation. On a Wednesday morning, many senior volunteers reported to the Senior Center to give it a much-needed face-lift. We are grateful for the volunteers who have pitched in to help.

We continue serve good nutritious meals on Wednesday and Friday. All are welcome.

HILL and VALLEY GARDEN CLUB

We are excited to announce that the Hill and Valley Garden Club will again begin monthly meetings at the Kendrick Grange on Main St. We are going to try to meet the 4th Tuesday of the month beginning September 22nd, and again on October 27th. We have not met since February of 2020. Masks are encouraged but not required.

We have a busy year planned and hope that COVID-19 does not negatively affect our meetings this year. Because of the lack of activities last spring, we will not need to pay dues for the membership year 20-21.

The meetings are held between 1:00pm and 3:00pm depending on speakers and program. Light refreshments will be served and members rotate hosting, 2 per meeting. Barbara Heimgartner and Kathy Cassin are hosting the first meeting. This will be an organizational meeting to review the yearbook, calendar, committees, and contact information. We will visit Polly's flower garden with Dorothy Taylor as a guide. A notice will be sent once the plans are finalized.

On Tuesday, October 27th, 2020, Lane Burnett will be presenting her ideas for a community garden in Juliaetta. The project was delayed because of work on the water plant. Other programs for the year include soil blocking, propagating, and home grape growing.

The HVGC Memorial Garden is in place at Wallace Park surrounding the Kendrick sign. Member memorials could include roses, hydrangeas, and dahlias. Proposed funding for memorials should be limited to $50.00.

Projects for this year include supporting KHS senior projects, such as replacing the Kendrick sign at Wallace Park. We are also sponsoring elementary school gardening projects, Mother's Day bouquets with sixth graders, a Christmas garden shower for the elementary school, and scholarships for seniors. We will have the seed and plant exchange in April at the Juliaetta Community Library and community clean-up day in October. We would like to add planters in the park We are optimistic that this year will be more productive.

We do not yet know the date or location for the October District Meeting. For more information or questions about membership call Barb Heimgartner (208-276-7861) or Kathy Cassin (208-289-4640). Kathy Cassin

JK Early Learning Advisory Committee

For the past few months, an Early Learning Advisory Committee has been meeting virtually and taking part in a project that is focused on improving the resources available for our families with children 5 years and younger.

This committee has conducted a local early learning needs assessment to help determine current systems and resources already in place, and then will develop a strategic action plan to be submitted at the end of October. The Kendrick/Juliaetta local collaborative is part of the Idaho Preschool Development Grant Birth through Five project.

Thank you to the many families and providers that took the time to complete our survey. We have some rockstar providers and programs in our KJ7 Community that we are extremely blessed with, and we hope to be able to offer more support and resources to them and our families.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to Angie Tweit, Jessica Clemenhagen, Erin Davis, Kayla Collins, or Valerie Lohman. Our group would also like to extend our deepest appreciation to Heather Lee from the Idaho AEYC for all of the guidance she has given to this project. Stay tuned to see what we do next!

Grange Happenings

The Grange is sporting a brand new coat of paint on the front of the building thanks to Rose Norris and Jan Patterson.

Wells Fargo provided a donation of very nice chairs, for which we are grateful.

The recently sponsored rummage sale helped provide us with funds for the building. We are grateful for the community support.

Juliaetta Elementary News

Juliaetta Elementary needs a few supplies. Patriots have asked if they could donate to our school. We welcome any donation; however, the items below are items in need: Clorox wipes, hand sanitizer, pencil boxes, colored copy paper, glue sticks, spiral notebooks, wide and college-ruled paper, packaged snacks (granola bars, crackers, fruit snacks, etc.), Expo dry erase markers (blue, black, red, green), gallon/quart/snack-sized Ziploc bags, headphones (no earbuds).

JK Heritage Foundation

We are happy to announce the publication of two books that were released in August. Tales Worth Remembering – Volume 3 is full of short stories consisting of historical events from surrounding areas. This volume will use old glass negatives from Bear Ridge as the page dividers.

We thank Phil's Family Foods, Furry Tales, and Harris Computer Service for making these available to the community.

The second book released recently is Texas Ridge. It is a history of the Ridge from 1880 to 1940. It is available at Fuzzy's and White Pine Foods at Deary. It is available at the stores listed above in Kendrick or by contacting Sharon Harris, 208-289-4622 or 25skharris@gmail.com. Sharon Harris

Black Billed Magpies

There are two species of magpies in this country. The yellow-billed magpie is found only in California. The Black-billed magpie's range covers most of western North America from the northern boundaries of New Mexico and Arizona to the Aleutian Islands. Our magpie is this Black Billed.

Magpies are related to crows, ravens, and jays and share many of the same features: they are scavengers, social, noisy, raucous, and intelligent. These are fairly large birds (19"), boldly colored (black and white with a blue-green iridescence on the backs and tails) that prefer open areas. We'll see magpies sitting atop high outlooks or hopping and strutting on the ground. Like their relatives, they are not shy nor do they avoid people. In fact, magpies often followed Native American hunting parties, hoping for easy dinner. The same tendencies draw them to feedlots and cattle pens. They like open grasslands, preferably near a water course, but can be found in large urban yards and parks.

These birds are almost omnivorous. They eat wild fruit and grain, ground-dwelling insects such as grasshoppers and beetles. They will kill small mammals (squirrels, voles) and may raid bird nests. Carrion is a highly prized meal as are the maggots found there. They've been known to steal coyote and fox kills and to pick ticks from the backs of large animals such as cattle and moose.

The sexes look alike, but each has its own special behaviors. For instance, nests are often large domed structures high in trees or on utility poles, typically 30" wide and 20" tall. The male collects sticks for the exterior; the female is in charge of the interior, building a mud cup lined with grass. While they generally cooperate in choosing a nest site, occasionally they disagree. Then the stubborn birds may each start a nest in his (or her) chosen location. My sources did not offer any information on how such conflicts are settled. One uniquely magpie behavior is the magpie "funeral". When a bird discovers a dead magpie, it begins calling loudly, attracting others of the species who join the group. Up to 40 magpies have been observed, all calling raucously for 10 or 15 minutes, after which they disperse and fly away silently. Because a bird is "common" does not mean it is uninteresting, and the Magpie proves the point.

Gritman Medical Center's clinics are now scheduling in-person and telemedicine visits.

Telemedicine allows you to visit with your provider conveniently through your mobile device, tablet or computer. It also helps us continue to provide exceptional care while you follow stay-at-home orders and social distancing guidelines to stay safe during the COVID-19 emergency.

Please call to schedule a telemedicine or in-person visit:

Moscow Family Medicine: 208-882-2011
Kendrick Family Care: 208-289-3841

If you have questions about COVID-19 symptoms or testing, you can call your primary care provider or the Gritman COVID-19 Hotline at 208-883-4109.

You can also text "COVID19" to 208-295-5080.

Now offering telemedicine to keep you healthy and safe.
